

Good morning, this is Michael and today I want to talk with you about setting goals with God in mind. And to do that I want to look at Psalm 37:4

Trust in the Lord, and he will give you the desires of your heart.

Our job, per se, is DELIGHTING IN THE LORD. The result is that the Lord will give to us the desires of our heart.

This word DELIGHT comes from the same word meaning 'dainty', 'soft', and 'pliable' suggesting –at least to this speaker- a more fluid and flexible relationship with the Lord. And as you spend time with the Lord, your Creator, the one who made you on purpose and for purpose, you will begin to uncover the glorious mystery of those passions which God had placed in your life at birth.

You are probably already aware of some of this too. For instance:

Have you ever wondered why no one else sees life in the exact same way as you?

Have you ever been frustrated over a task that others easily accomplished?

Such situations point to the reality that you are unique, and when You embrace this as God already has, there will be some powerful times of inspiration.

Let me conclude with these thoughts:

when you discover your niche in life, you will begin to plan and want to plan on setting goals that will allow you to work out that passion with God's leading .
