

Hello, this is Michael De Rosa from the Mountainside Community Church and today I want us to look into Psalm 47:1

O clap your hands, all peoples;
Shout to God with the voice of joy.

Some of us are 'just too dignified' to raise our voice above a mouse's whisper to God. 'After all, some of us see Him as this aged gentleman who disdains anything but pristine language!

Well, I think the Bible has 3 words for us on that:

Get over yourself!

God is not shocked at our outburst of emotion. Just read through the Psalms and if it does not curl your hair with its range of emotions, I would very very surprised.

So, let's leave the stuff shirted Christianity that foster dignified worship –whatever that means- behind and give it a burial, and begin to live like we are alive and celebrate that there is absolutely nothing that can dampen the reality that God's joy is yours because he created you in love
