

Good morning. This is Michael De Rosa and with School starting I want to address this to the parents. We will be looking at Proverbs 22:6, which reads:

Train up a Child in the way he should go and when he is old
he won't depart from it

The start up of school is also the start up of a lot of peer pressure for families to modify their Christian values 'for the sake of their children'

And unless you develop the backbone to stand up to those who are wanting to challenge your faith, your child will suffer.

As a parent, may I give us you some advice?

1. Reading Scripture across the dinner table has merit, but showing your child how God is changing you through His will speak more than words could ever tell.
2. And don't fall into the trap that you need to do this alone. Remember to seek God daily for guidance, ask your church for their support.

In closing, remember this:

Though some may want to remove God from schools, our children are staying and they can be a glowing testimony of the power and love of God...when YOU train up your child in His way.
